Bangladesh, country of south-central Asia, located in the delta of the Padma (Ganges [Ganga]) and Jamuna (Brahmaputra) rivers in the northeastern part of the Indian subcontinent. The riverine country of Bangladesh (“Land of the Bengals”) is one of the most densely populated countries in the world, and its people are predominantly Muslim. With the partition of India in 1947, it became the Pakistani province of East Bengal (later renamed East Pakistan), one of five provinces of Pakistan, separated from the other four by 1,100 miles (1,800 km) of Indian territory. In 1971 it became the independent country of Bangladesh, with its capital at Dhaka.
Table of contents

About Bangladesh .................................................. 2
Baikka Beel .......................................................... 4
Bichanakandi ......................................................... 10
Lalakhal ............................................................... 19
Madhabkunda waterfall ......................................... 27
Madhabpur Lake ..................................................... 35
Ratargul Swamp Forest .......................................... 43
Baikka Beel, a sanctuary for birds and fish, is located in Sreemangal and Moulvibazar. It is a part of Hail Haor. The beel has an area of 1000 hectares and comprises of open water with emergent vegetation and a fringe of native swamp forest.
BAIKKA BEEL
BAIKKA BEEL
Bichanakandi under Gowainghat Upazila, is a newly explored tourist attraction of Sylhet. Just 40 kilometers drive from the city center will take you to this wonderful place where fountain water flows through rocks and stones of different size and color.
BICHANAKANDI
BICHANAKANDI
BICHANAKANDI
Lalakhal is one of the spectacles of Sylhet that overwhelms visitors with its unique natural beauty. This is a wide canal flowing from the Meghalaya range of India and meeting Sharee River near Tamabil road.
Have you ever imagined any place that goes through the tea gardens, hills and leads you to a beautiful waterfall? If you didn't, just come to visit Madhabkunda waterfall. This is one of the highest waterfalls in Bangladesh.
MADHABKUNDA WATERFALL
Madhabpur Lake

Sylhet

Madhabpur Lake is a natural water reservoir inside Madhabpur tea estate under Kamalganj Upazila. It is 16 km away from Srimangal. The lake is green tea gardens that soothe your feelings with a sense of tranquility in contrast to city life.
You can never imagine how silence could be so enjoyable until you visit the amazing beauty of a swamp forest named Ratargul. Visitors will find a forest underwater with lots of big trees that have emerged. This is an evergreen forest and one of the best freshwater swamp forests in the world.
RATARGUL SWAMP FOREST
RATARGUL SWAMP FOREST
RATARGUL SWAMP FOREST
RATARGUL SWAMP FOREST